Understanding Your Money Blueprint

Redesigning Your Money Blueprints

In the spaces below for each blueprint area explore everything you can think of related to that area that has influenced your relationship with money. Next, take a highlighter and highlight what within each area has really been the driver of your actions and feelings about money. And finally, write an affirmation that supports or neutralizes the driver you highlighted. Your affirmation should create the new possibility you want in that part of your money blueprint. Circle the money blueprint that you want to maintain, what still works for you.
